MAD LIBS®

MAD LIBS® is a sort of game for people who don't like games. It can be played by two, three, four, or forty.

■ RIDICULOUSLY SIMPLE DIRECTIONS

In this tablet you will find stories containing blank spaces where words are left out. One player, the READER, selects one of these stories. The READER does not tell anyone what the story is about. Instead he/she asks the other players, the WRITERS, to give him/her words. These words are used to fill in the blank spaces in the story.

■ TO PLAY

The READER asks each WRITER in turn to call out a word. This word will be an adjective or a noun or whatever the space calls for. He/She then writes the words in the blank spaces in the story. After all the spaces are filled in the result is a MAD LIB.

The READER then reads the completed MAD LIB to the other players. They will hear that they have written a story that is fantastic, screamingly funny, shocking, silly, crazy or just plain dumb – depending upon which words each WRITER called out.

In case you've forgotten what adjectives, adverbs, nouns, and verbs are, here is a quick review:

An ADJECTIVE describes something or somebody. Lumpy, soft, blond, ugly, messy, and short are adjectives.

An ADVERB tells how something is done. It modifies a verb and usually ends in "ly". Modestly, stupidly, greedily, and carefully are adverbs.

A NOUN is the name of a person, place, or thing. Woman, sidewalk, umbrella, horse-collar, bathtub, and nose are nouns.

A VERB is an action word. Run, pitch, jump, and swim are verbs.

When we ask for a GEOGRAPHICAL LOCATION, we mean any sort of place: a country or city (Spain, Cleveland) or a room (Bathroom, Kitchen).

An EXCLAMATION or SILLY WORD is any sort of funny sound, gasp, grunt, or outcry. Wow! Ouch! Whomp! Ick! Gadzooks! are exclamations and silly words.

When we ask for specific words like A NUMBER, A COLOR, AN ANIMAL, or A PART OF THE BODY, we mean a word that is one of those things.

When a PLURAL is asked for be sure to pluralize the word.

EXAMPLE: _____
(Before)

“ _____! ” he said
EXCLAMATION
_____, as he jumped into ADVERB
his convertible _____ and NOUN

THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

In 1776, Americans got tired of the _____ actions
ADJECTIVE of George, the Third, who was the _____ of
NOUN
England. So they published a "Declaration of Independence," a brilliant document which begins: "When in the course of ADJECTIVE events it becomes necessary for one NOUN to dissolve the political PLURAL NOUN that have connected them with another" Other great phrases in the Declaration are: "We hold these PLURAL NOUN to be self-evident, that all PLURAL NOUN are created ADJECTIVE, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable PLURAL NOUN. Among these are Life, Liberty, and SOMETHING YOU LIKE." The Declaration was signed by 56 brave Americans, and on that day our great nation was born.
Which is why every July 4th we all shout " EXCLAMATION."
